

Bunny bait

I'm going to warn you now so you can't say I didn't warn you later, this festive, sweet treat is HIGHLY addictive! Isn't it fun? It's perfect for birthdays and holidays because not only is it amazingly delicious but it makes a huge bowl full so you'll have enough for a crowd of people

2 cups pretzels

1 bag popped white popcorn

1 package Almond Bark white melting chocolate

1 bag of festive M&M's

2 cups of Chex cereal

1 container of sprinkles

Spread pretzels, popcorn, and Chex on a foil covered baking sheet and drizzle white chocolate over the mixture ... Gently stir to coat evenly ... Add sprinkles but don't stir it anymore or the sprinkles will be coated with chocolate and turn white ... Let harden on cookie sheets and then break apart and add M&M's to the finished mixture ...

The ideas for packaging are endless, cute bags to give away as favors or just put it in a big bowl and it will be a hit !!
